

Intercultural Understanding Guide: Brazilian Culture

Geographic context:

• Brazil, officially known as the Federative Republic of Brazil is in South America and ranked as the fifth most populous country in the world.

Language:

• The primary language in Brazil is Portuguese, which is spoken by 208.31 million people, followed by Spanish and English, spoken by 6.38 million and 8.50 million people respectively.

Religion and Ethnicity:

- Brazil's ethnic diversity reflects its history of migratory patterns. The country has embraced a medley of migrants from all over the world.
- Brazil has a diverse religious landscape.
- Accordingly, the majority of Brazilians in the country identify as Roman Catholic (64.4%), thus reflecting its historical relationship with Portugal and the Catholic Church.

Social norm/structure/hierarchy:

- A collectivistic attitude and sense of solidarity are characteristic of many Brazilian people.
- There is often a sense of pride in their ability to work together to shape their lived experiences rather than passively accept the status quo.

Communication style:

• Brazilians are generally expressive and emotive in terms of communication, they are open to talking about their thoughts and emotions.

Demographics in Australia:

- Immigration from Brazil to Australia has been ongoing from as early as 1871.
- According to the 2021 Australian Census, there are 46,720 Australian residents who were born in Brazil. Furthermore, there are 36,697 Australians with Brazilian ancestry.

References:

Cultural Atlas; Tilti